Hoshizaki wins energy award

SUBMITTED
Hoshizaki America Inc. has announced that it received the 2019 Energy Star Partner of the Year Sustained Excellence Award for continued leadership and superior contributions to Energy Star. Hoshizaki America's accomplishments were recognized by the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency and the U.S. Department of Energy at a ceremony in Washington on April 11. "Hoshizaki America Inc. is honored to partner with Energy Star as we concentrate efforts and resources in protecting the environment," said Jim Procuero, senior vice president, sales and marketing. "Our commitment to energy efficiency is evident in our product design, manufacturing processes, and incorporated in every facet throughout our business culture."

Utilize tax advantages to finance education

SUBMITTED
ATLANTA — For Georgia families, saving for college in the state's Path2College 529 Plan not only provides a financial foundation to help offset the cost of continued education, it also provides tax advantages.

Contributions to the state of Georgia's Path2College 529 Plan made by the tax deduction deadline, this year — Monday, April 15 — are eligible for deduction on the preceding year's tax return. By contributing as little as $25, families can open a Path2College 529 Plan. Contributions are deductible for Georgia income tax purposes up to $4,000 per year, per beneficiary, for those filing a joint return and up to $2,000 per year, per beneficiary, for include tuition, fees, books, certain room and board costs, supplies and equipment required for enrollment, such as computers and related technology such as internet access fees, software or printers) are federal and Georgia income tax-free. "We work year-round to inform families about the benefits of early financial planning for their children's education, but families are often more focused on financial planning during tax time, so it's a great time to consider a college savings plan," said Caylee Noggle, Interim President of the Georgia Student Finance Commission, which partners with the Office of the State Treasurer to administer the Path2College 529 Plan for the state of Georgia. FULTON COUNTY Dematic looks to set up global headquarters

ATLANTA — Georgia Gov. Brian Kemp announced Wednesday that Dematic, a world leader in supply chain technology and innovation, will create more than 230 jobs and invest about $30 million in a new global headquarters in the CODA complex in Midtown Atlanta's Tech Square.

"Our dynamic, pro-business environment is one of the reasons that Georgia is so successful in attracting innovative companies like Dematic," said Kemp. "By providing businesses with world-class talent, accessibility to global markets, and broadband infrastructure, our state will continue to be a leader in attracting and supporting tech companies."

Dematic's global headquarters will support its operations in 27 countries and more than 7,000 employees across the globe. With a long history in Metro Atlanta, Dematic employs more than 100 people in several locations — including Peachtree Corners and Griffin. "Technology is at the core of what we do," said Hasan Dandashly,
