Hoshizaki named 2022 Energy STAR Partner of the Year

BY PRESS RELEASE

PEACHTREE CITY — Hoshizaki America has received the 2022 ENERGY STAR Partner of the Year — Sustained Excellence award from the U.S. Environmental Protection Agency and the U.S. Department of Energy, the company said.

This marks 11 years in a row of being ENERGY STAR award winners.

“Hoshizaki America is honored to have earned ENERGY STAR recognition for over a decade,” Allan Dziwoki, senior vice president of sales and marketing, said in a statement. “We are committed to delivering the benefits of energy efficiency to our customers while continually investing towards a long-term clean energy future.”

Each year, the ENERGY STAR program honors a group of businesses and organizations that have made outstanding contributions to protecting the environment through superior energy achievements. ENERGY STAR award winners lead their industries in the production, sale and adoption of energy-efficient products, homes, buildings, services and strategies. These efforts are essential to fighting the climate crisis and protecting public health, a company statement read.

Winners are selected from a network of thousands of ENERGY STAR partners.

“We know it’s going to take all of us working together to tackle the climate crisis, and the 2022 ENERGY STAR award-winning partners are demonstrating what it takes to build a more sustainable future,” EPA Administrator Michael S. Regan, said in a statement. “These companies are showing once again that taking action in support of a clean energy economy can be good not only for the environment, but also for business and customers.”

‘Always do the right thing’

A whiff of summer is upon us and I am yet again thankful for the blessing of air conditioning.

Away from the office, I have been happily watching our little backyard garden sprout while dreaming of some fresh tomatoes and green beans. Here’s to hoping the deer and rabbits don’t get to them first.

As things heat up outside, our offices continue to simmer with trials and trial preparation. Last week, a Spalding County jury sent another message to wrongdoers that happens on a given day in our office.

What do I mean by these thousand quiet decisions? I am referring to cases that cannot be proven beyond a reasonable doubt that are dismissed, pleas that are negotiated with due consideration to the victims, defendants, and community at large and hard conversations that happen between our office and defense attorneys, victims and the law-enforcement officers who bring us cases. The guiding Hard as it might be to let someone who is guilty of poisoning our community walk free, the right thing to do is dismiss the case and talk to the officer so the violation of a constitutional right does not happen again. Thankfully, law enforcement in our Circuit also strive to do the right thing and this issue rarely arises. Yet, these sorts of decision happen on a large and small scale every day in our office. And they are not easy choices. But you trust us to make them, and we do not take that for granted.

None of us are perfect. We make mistakes. But our oath and our
