

TOPPAN GRAND OPENING

Toppan officials, guests and local community leaders gathered outside the facility for pictures after the ribbon-cutting.

Toppan officials planted a dogwood tree at the entrance to the facility as part of grand opening ceremonies, April 7.

Above left: Grand opening ceremonies at the Toppan USA plant in Griffin included a sake barrel opening. In ceremonial kimonos for the opening were Toppan USA President Sumio Ezaki, Toppan Printing Company, Ltd., President and Representative Director Shingo Kaneko, Consulate General of Japan in Atlanta Takashi Shinozuka, Director of Global Commerce for the Georgia Department of Economic Development Scott McMurray, Griffin-Spalding Development Authority Chairman Charles Copeland and Kajima Corporation Managing Executive Officer Shigeru Tomoda. Above right: Griffin-Spalding Development Authority Executive Director David Luckie held up a print of a painting of the original Imperial Theater by Joyce Perdue Smith, which was presented to Toppan at the grand opening along with a joint city-county proclamation declaring April 7, 2016, as Toppan Printing Ltd., Day. Kim Grist, administrative assistant held the proclamation.

Photos by Kevin Johnson, marketing supervisor, Kajima Building & Design Group, Inc. from the grand opening ceremonies held April 7 at Toppan USA, 603 Rehoboth Road, Griffin.

Plant employees conduct facility tour

The Toppan USA grand opening included a tour of facilities conducted by plant employees.

Photos by Ray Lightner/Daily News.